In Effingham County, Georgia, Sheriff Jimmy McDuffie buckles up every trip, every time. It's department policy for every deputy too. Driving unbuckled on the job here will get you a day's suspension without pay.

Why so serious about seat belts? In November 2006, veteran Deputy Dennis Wright died at the scene without a safety belt in a patrol car crash. "Everyone loved Dennis," says McDuffie. "No department should lose a deputy that way."

"You can't have public safety without officer safety first." After every roll call.. before every road check.. every officer should "CLICK IT BEFORE YOU TICKET"
